DAMN.
I WISH I THOUGHT OF THAT.

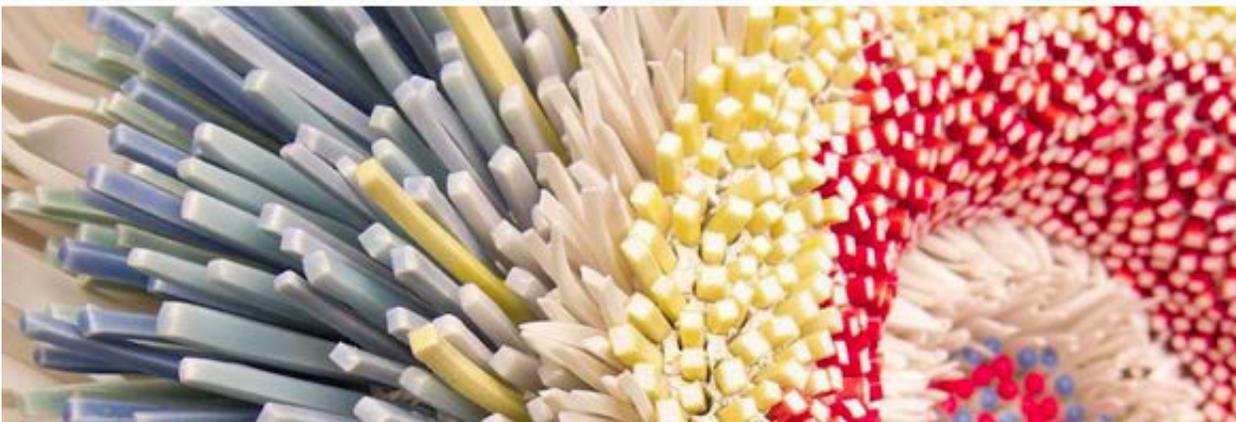

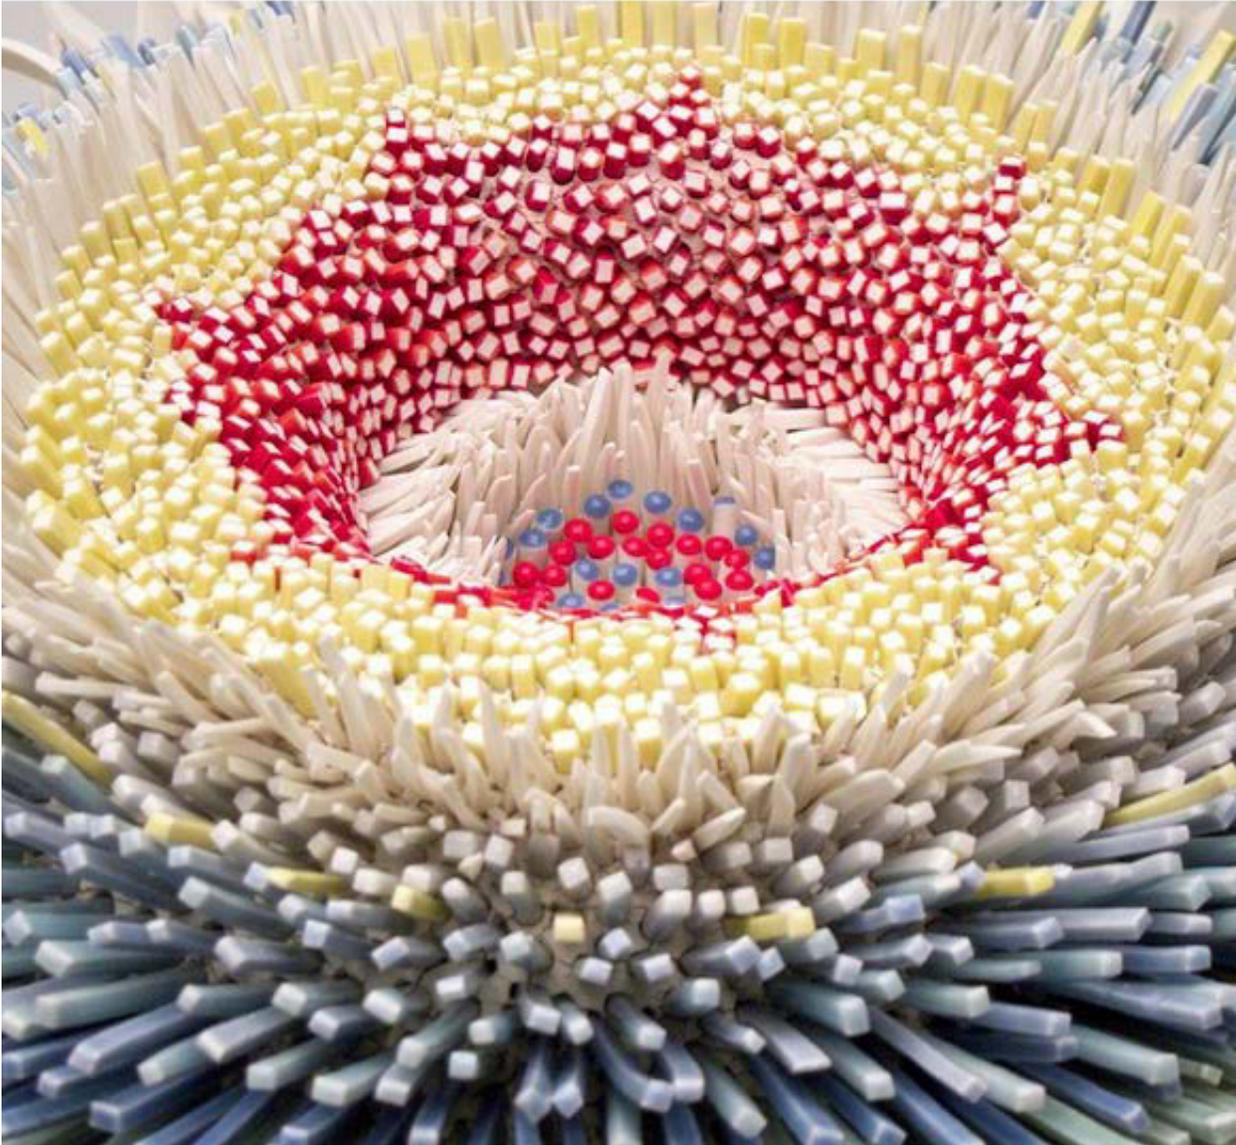

zemer peled

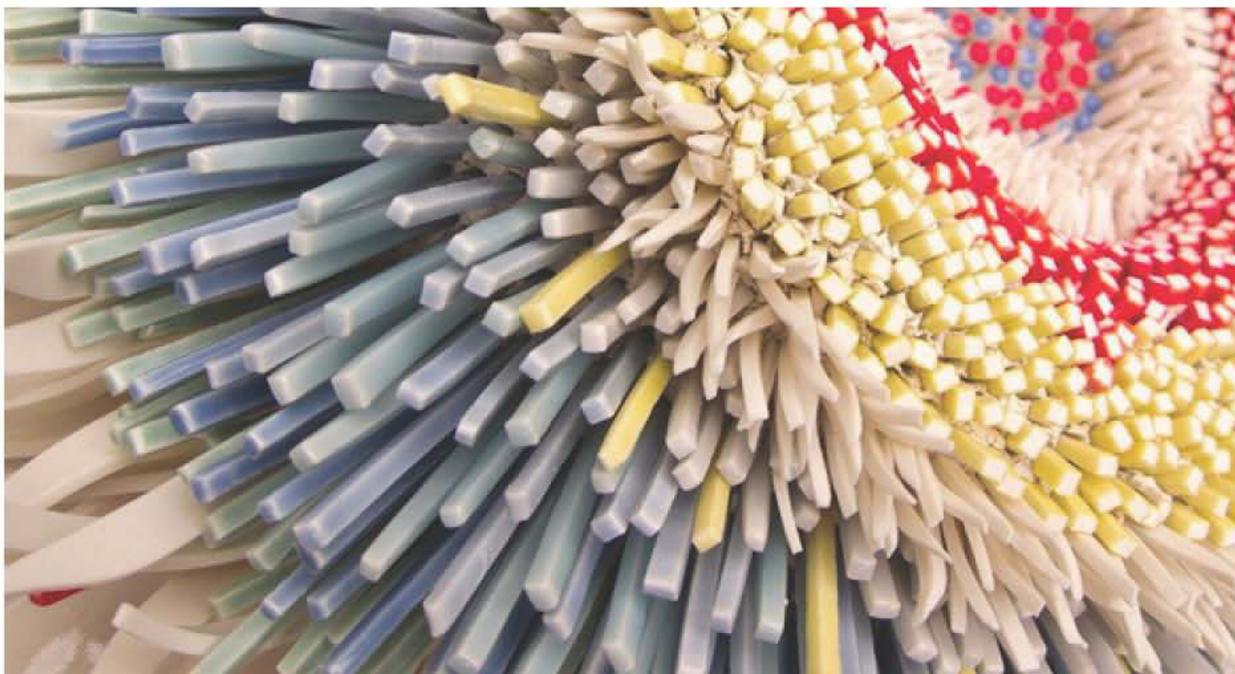

Whoa. Beautiful shards of ceramics transformed into colorful, striking {and I assume kinda sharp} blooms. Ah-mazing. This is the stunning work of Israeli artist Zemer Peled, and if you happen to be in Culver City, CA before June 13th you can see her work in an exhibition titled "In Bloom", at the Mark Moore Gallery {She's in good company... there are a few of Warhol's flowers in this show as well.}
